ALCOHOL EDUCATION COURSES

We offer alcohol education courses designed for both minors and adults. These courses focus on the risks of alcohol use through its impact on decision-making, health, and safety. We provide essential knowledge to help participants understand consequences, make responsible choices, and meet court or educational requirements.

ANGER MANAGEMENT COURSES

Our anger management courses focus on understanding anger, identifying emotional triggers, and learning healthy ways to manage reactions. They provide essential tools to help participants improve self-control, strengthen communication, and make more positive choices in everyday situations.

COGNITIVE THINKING & DECISION-MAKING COURSES

These cognitive thinking and decision-making courses focus on recognizing thought patterns, understanding how decisions are made, and learning strategies to improve judgment and problem-solving. They provide practical tools to help participants consider consequences and make more positive choices in everyday situations.

DRUG & ALOCHOL COURSES

We offer drug and alcohol courses focused on the dangers of substance abuse and the risks of alcohol addiction. They provide clear, educational insight into how substance use affects health, behavior, and decision-making, while helping participants make healthier choices moving forward.

LIFE SKILLS COURSES

These life skills courses focus on building practical abilities such as communication, responsibility, time management, and problem-solving. They provide tools to help participants develop confidence, improve daily decision-making, and create positive habits to support long-term personal growth.

MARIJUANA & THC COURSES

Our marijuana and THC courses focus on understanding the effects of cannabis use, potential risks, and how THC can impact health, behavior, and decision-making. They provide educational insight to help participants recognize consequences and make more informed, responsible choices.

VAPING & NICOTINE COURSES

We offer vaping and nicotine courses focused on understanding the effects of nicotine use, including vaping products, and the risks associated with dependence. They provide educational insight into how nicotine impacts health, behavior, and decision-making; helping participants make more informed and healthier choices.

THEFT & SHOPLIFTING COURSES

Our theft and shoplifting courses focus on understanding the consequences of stealing, the legal and personal impacts of such actions, and strategies for making better choices. They provide practical guidance to help participants develop accountability, responsibility, and positive decision-making skills.

Other Courses

MORAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR TODAY (MRT) 32-HR COURSE

Moral Responsibility for Today (MRT) is a 32-hour cognitive-behavioral program designed to help individuals examine their thinking patterns, increase self-awareness, and develop the skills needed for responsible, law-abiding behavior. The course is grounded in emphasizing accountability, moral reasoning, and long-term behavior change.

BEYOND ANGER 20-HR COURSE

The "Beyond Anger" program is a 20-hour course divided into 10 two-hour parts. This self-paced course is specifically designed to address hostility, anger, and aggressive behavior, while promoting improved decision-making. The program employs cognitive-behavioral strategies and components focused on moral reasoning, accountability, and self-reflection to foster self-awareness, life improvement, and constructive interactions with others.

Trusted by Courts. Built for Change.

Court Solutions Online offers convenient, court-approved online courses for defendants, probationers, pre-trial intervention, and more. Our programs go beyond simply pointing out mistakes, they teach participants why certain behaviors are harmful and how to make positive changes.

Unlike programs that focus solely on punishment, our courses educate and empower participants to improve their lives for themselves, their families, and their communities. Throughout each program, participants explore essential lessons on values, self-worth, motivation, and decision-making, gaining the tools they need to make better choices and build a stronger foundation for the future.
